

Organ Competition

"Organ without borders 2013" in Dudelange (Luxembourg)

First Prize: 4000€, Second Prize: 1000€, Third Prize: 600€, Public Prize: 500€
For each of both competitions, interpretation as well as improvisation.

Jury president:

Jane Parker-Smith (Great Britain) for the Interpretation competition,
Wolfgang Seifen (Germany) for the Improvisation competition.

Other jury members:

Philippe Delacour (France), Jisung Kim, Seoul Theological University (South Korea),
Bernhard Leonardy (Germany), Marek Stefanski, Krakau (Poland), Alain Wirth (Luxembourg).

Jury sessions

- ❖ Tuesday 27.8.2013
First qualifying round Interpretation (Luxembourg City, Westenfelder organ at Saint Michael's Church)
- ❖ Wednesday 28.8.2013
Qualifying round Improvisation (Luxembourg City, Westenfelder organ at the Conservatoire de Musique.)
- ❖ Thursday 29.8.2013
Day over:
2nd qualifying round Interpretation (Dudelange, Stahlhuth-Jann organ at Saint-Martin's Church)
In the evening:
Final round Improvisation (Luxembourg City, Schuke organ at the Philharmonie)
- ❖ Friday 30.8.2013
Day over:
Master class in Metz and/or Saarbrücken and/or Luxembourg with jury members.
In the evening:
Final round Interpretation in Dudelange.
- ❖ Saturday 31.8.2013
Day over:
Master class in Metz and/or Saarbrücken and/or Luxembourg with jury members.
In the evening:
Closing recital in Dudelange with the jury presidents Jane Parker-Smith and Wolfgang Seifen, the latter will improvise on the competition themes